AT WHITE LAKE SOLD OUT.

LABOR COMMISSIONER'S PLEA FOR FEMALE WORKERS IN STORES AND FACTORIES.

THAT SCHOOL MONEY FROM THE TAILROAD BACK TAXES IS A VEXED QUESTION.

Dowle's Summer Home.

In the presence of 1,500 persons drawn from all parts of Michigan, the furniture and expensive fittings of Ben Mac Dhui, the palatial summer home of John Alexander Dowle, at White Lake, were sold under the hammer. The scene was one of confusion. Piled about everywhere were rugs, furniture, beds and articles of every description. The former sanctity of the place was altogether wanting. The sale started off briskly and everything went cheap and quickly. Art glass goblets went for as low as sixty cents a dozen. An art gallery replete with Japanese prints and worth perhaps $500, went for $50. Mahogany and oak furniture went at the price of pine. Barely one-twentieth of the worth of the goods was realized. To aid the depleted finances at Zion City, the most beautiful and magnifisummer home in the west has been deprived of its former beauty The residence now stands stripped of its expensive furnishings. On the grounds everything, down to stump pullers and benches, tin pails and pumps, has gone. The sale brought out fresh evidence of Dowle's extrava-gance. Furniture, beautiful but worthwas displayed. Persian rugs of the finest texture went along with matting. Five hundred blankets, bought years ago but never brought the price of possibly fifty.

Women and children who toll in the actories and stores of Michigan should in yet , but so far as received they innot be required to work more than nine hours a day, in the opinion of revision this year in every section of State Labor Commissioner Malcolm J. | the state. McLeod. In the preface of his annual report which is being prepared Mr. McLeod makes this recommendation.

"An amendment to the state law which will shorten the hours of work for women and children, so that employes of this class may not be compelled to work more than 54 hours in any one week, has my sympathy and earnest recommendation. This would include women and girls who work in stores, who are now often obliged to work for 12 to 15 hours each day."

In discussing child labor, the commissioner says that parents and guardtender age to the factory or workshop for the pittance they may earn will followed. He was a diver of 25 years' not scruple to make false affidavit as to their age. He adds that there should be either a transcript of the record of birth, the church records or some other locumentary evidence required by law.

Mr. McLeod also recommends that the factory inspection law be amended to require factory managers and oper ators to report within 24 hours with all data any accident wherein an employe is so injured that he is disabled and prevented from working "Publicity would not prevent all accidents," the ommissioner says, "but it would cause diligence, and with the reports the department could investigate these accidents, determine the cause and prevent a repetition."

The School Moneys.

Is there a scheme to deposit the $8,000,000 due from the railroads under the tax decision, in the custody of a number of pet state banks, instead of either depositing it in proportions in the banks in various counties, or paying it over at once to the various school boards?

That the money will not go at once to the school boards is the fear of Senator Doherty, of Claire, and Rep. William J. Galbraith, of Houghton. Mr. Galbraith is the author of the equalization bill which was passed by the last legislature, and also of the bill reducing the tax commission to three members. He is regarded among the members of the legislature as an authority on taxation and tax law. There has been newspaper talk that the money might not be turned over. "The law and the constitution contemplate the immediate payment of that money to the various school boards of the state at once. The proposition to divert any part of this immense sum of money to the normal schools would prove most unpopular, because the ordinary Michigan citizen is more jealous of the school fund than of any other, and this is right. "The money should be paid out at once. There is always a danger when there is any great sum of money to be deposited, that it will go to a few favored banks in various localities, instead of being distributed in the banks throughout the state. The law intends that the money be distributed at once. The school boards are the custodians, and they need the money. Any other course will be extremely unpopular."

Frederick Heimforth, of Leland, aged 81, sat down to rest after doing the chores, and was dead in a few moments.

Dust explosion endangered the lives of a score of firemen who were bat-tling with flames that almost entirely destroyed a Cincinnati school, The loss of $25,000 is total, as there was no insurance. Eight hundred school children are deprived of school until temporary provision can be made for them.

Rep. J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, submitted to the house a proposition to divide Texas into five states, repesented in congress by 10 senators and a proportionate number of representatives, with one man elected governor, but with the component states each under a lieutenant governor and a sep-

AROUND THE STATE.

After Many Years,

Gideon Chilson, aged 85, an inmate of the Michigan Soldiers' home since was opened, believes he has tidings of his two children whom he has not seen since he left his home in Water loo, N. Y., in 1864 and went to Detroit to enlist in the Fourteenth Michigan DOWIE'S SUMMER HOME Infantry. When at the close of the war he returned to his old home, he learned that his son and daughter, and their grandmother, having received tidings of his death, had sold the property and left for parts unknown. He was never able to get any trace of them after wards. A few days ago one of Mr. Chilson's chums spoke of a young man in Monroe county, New York, named Wm. Chilson. The old man became all attention on the moment and asked the ald of the sheriff in the hope that he would at last find his loved ones. "Don't write to them," said he with "If I find that they are really my son and daughter I want to surprise them with a visit,"

The Search For Morley. Detectives will search the entire globe for Laverger, the bogus French officer who is suspected of knowing the fate of Reuben Morley, the young Saginaw man thought to have been murdered in northern China, last year Laverger was his companion when he last wrote home, and later is known to have represented himself as Mor and to have cashed Morley's drafts, amounting to hundreds of dollars at Pekin and other points in the orient, John E. Morley, of Cleveland, half brother of the missing man, has gone to New York to confer with a big detective agency. No expense will be spared to hunt Laverger down, even if it takes years to accomplish the mission.

Revise Constitution. The voters of Michigan, having declared by a large majority for a convention to revise the present state constitution, which was adopted 56 years ago, it is an interesting citation from the records which show that although 37 amendments have been made to it at general elections, propositions for a general revision have been twice rejected. Twice revision was authorized and each time the revision was rejected by the people, and once a resolution to revise was authorized, but the vote was so small that nothing further was done. The official returns are not all dicate a pretty strong sentiment for

NEW CHINESE BILL.

Representative Denby, of Michigan, introduced a bill today making extensive revision of the Chinese exclusion act. It extends the operation of this act ten years and incorporates the recommendations of Commissioner-General Sargent for American inspectors in China under the supervision of the immigration service and for the re-registration of Chinese now in this country. The bill is not intended to modify the basic policy of excluding Chinese laborers, but, according to Mr. Denby, is an attempt to find a compromise which shall harmonize differences with China,

It permits Chinese residents of this country to go and come at will under proper regulation in regard to return certificates, etc. lt. repeals the provi-sion of existing law permitting Chinese laborers to leave the United States and subsequently return only in case they have wives or families or debts due to them in the United States and which limits their right of return to one year. It admits Chinese applicants for the writ of habeas corpus to ball-a privilege now denied them.
